2. 教學綱要

This course is designed to develop students' reading and speaking skills through reading landmarks of drama and conducting collaborative drama activities. We cannot launch this introductory course to Western drama without tackling William Shakespeare, a must-read for all English majors. Among the Shakespearean plays, Romeo and Juliet presents challenging responses to the feudal-aristocratic society of medieval England and dovetails with the spirit of the Renaissance (14th~17th) that turns the eyes inward towards human nature and what constructs social order. Shakespeare's works receive quite amount of movie adaptations, and we will read Romeo and Juliet with Shakespeare in Love, a 1998 film based on the play.

Selected quotes from Romeo and Juliet:

-"A pair of star-crossed lovers--

Take their own lives.

Their pitiful, needless deaths

Bury their parents' feud." (Chorus)

-"What's in a name? A rose

By any other name would smell as sweet.

So Romeo would still be perfect,

If he were not called Montague.

Romeo, take off your name.

And for that name, which is no part of you,

Take all of me." (Juliet)

-"These violent delights have violent ends,

And die too soon, like fire and gunpowder,

When they kiss and destroy each other.

The sweetest honey can be sickening.

So love moderately. It will last longer." (Friar)

Course Requirements: Students are expected to attend all the class sessions and attend each class with course materials. Late arrival, coming to class empty-handed, or being a phubber in class will lead to a deduction of the final grade. Be on time and come prepared to learn and contribute. Students will be selected at random to answer questions and be graded based on how well they demonstrate understandings of the reading. No make-up quizzes for your absences. Understand and be responsible for your grade. To facilitate learning outside the classroom, course materials and assignments will be uploaded onto E-campus, an E-learning environment for all NQU courses. All students must register for E-campus and also enter a frequently used email account in order to gain full access to course materials, to receive course updates, to form small groups, and to submit homework online. In an early prevention of an unexpected internet breakdown, please be advised to download weekly reading materials in advance. For course-related questions, contact me at tmpmlily@nqu.edu.tw
